EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

This document reports as set of complementary dissemination activities carried out in the EVEREST project for completing the classical ones, such as publications in magazines or papers presented in international conferences already reported in deliverable D22: "Dissemination Report".

Among others, these complementary dissemination activities include: Press releases, Company newsletters, Company WEB pages, Seminars for Operators' employees, etc.,

The document mainly consists in two sections. In section one a brief revision of the EVEREST dissemination approach is carried out, whereas in section specific details of the public participation and awareness are reported. The document also includes seven annexes, showing examples of the reports published and slides used in different presentations and seminars.
